:RESPONDENTS

(Sri Basavaraj V Sabarad, Adv., for R1)

This Appeal is filed under Section 44 of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 before the Karnataka Appellate Tribunal, Bengaluru, to set aside the order dated 16th January, 2019 in CMP/180925/0001319 passed by the Adjudicating Officer, RERA Respondent No.1. This appeal was transferred to this Tribunal on 02.01.2020 and renumbered as Appeal No. (K-REAT) 56/2020.

This appeal coming on for orders this day, Chairman delivered the following:

JUDGMENT

Memo of appearance filed by Sri Basavaraj V Sabarad to appear on behalf of RERA – R1 is taken on record. Registry to show his name as learned counsel appearing for RERA – R1 wherever it is necessary.

Developer has preferred this appeal on 21.05.2019 before the Interim Tribunal (Karnataka Appellate Tribunal) challenging the order dated 16.01.2019 passed in complaint No CMP/180925/0001319 by the learned Adjudicating Officer, RERA, directing the appellant – developer as follows :

“1) The developer is hereby directed to return the own contribution amount to the complainant within 30 days from today. If not it will carry interest @ 10.75% from 31st Day.

2) The developer is hereby directed to return the 2X amount to the complainant.

3) The developer is hereby directed to discharge the loan raised in the name of the complainant with all its EMI and interest if any.

4) The developer is hereby directed to hand over the necessary documents to the complainant in case he has paid GST to the Government to enable the complainant to take back that amount”.

The Interim Tribunal itself had issued defect notice to the appellant long back asking the appellant to rectify the defects in filing the appeal. One of the main defects is non-deposit of 30% of the amount ordered to be refunded to the contesting respondent.

Later, the appeal came to be transferred to this Tribunal on 02.01.2020 and adjourned from time to time by granting time to the appellant to comply office objections mainly to deposit 30% of the amount ordered to be refunded to the contesting respondent (complainant). Though appellant in all was granted 1 year 2 months to comply office objections mainly to deposit 30% of the amount ordered to be refunded, till date, the appellant has not chosen to do the needful.

The appellant instead complying the mandatory provisions of Section 43(5) of the Act by depositing 30% of the amount ordered to be refunded to the contesting respondent (complainant), has filed an application IA III under Proviso to Section 43(5) of the Act praying the Tribunal to waive the condition of pre-deposit.

It is needless to say that in case of appeal by a developer unless the appellant first having deposited with the Appellate Tribunal atleast 30% of the penalty or such higher percentage as may be determined by the Appellate Tribunal or the total amount to be paid to the allottee including interest and compensation imposed on him, if any, or with both, as the case may be, such appeal shall not be entertained as per Section 43(5) of the Real Estate (Regulations and Development) Act, 2016.

As such, there is no merit in III and it is liable to be rejected as not maintainable.

Hence, the request made by the learned counsel for the appellant to grant time to deposit 30% of the amount ordered to be refunded to the contesting respondent (complainant) is rejected, accordingly IA III filed by the appellant seeking to waive the condition of pre-deposit is rejected as not maintainable

Consequently, appeal is dismissed for non-compliance of office objections particularly for non-compliance of mandatory provisions of Section 43 (5) of the Real Estate (Regulations and Development), Act 2016.

No order as to costs.
