This appeal was transferred to this Tribunal on 02.01.2020 and renumbered as Appeal No.(K-REAT)204/2020.

This appeal coming on for orders this day, the Judicial Member made the following:

JUDGMENT

Sri Samarth Sridhar learned counsel for the Appellant is present and submitted that the appellant requires another 8 weeks time to comply with the office objection regarding statutory deposit of 30% of the penalty amount. Sri Gopinath, vice president (Legal) of the appellant company is also present.

Learned counsel Sri Sudhindra appears on behalf of for Sri Basavaraj V Sabarad for R2 and submits that sufficient opportunity has been given to the appellant to comply with the office objection. In spite of giving sufficient opportunity, the appellant has not complied with the provision of Section 43 (5) of the Act and the appeal is liable to be rejected for non-compliance of office objection.

Admittedly, the appeal was filed on 25.11.2019 before the Interim Tribunal (KAT) Bangalore and subsequently transferred to this Tribunal. The learned counsel for the appellant goes on praying time to comply the office objection regarding the deposit of 30% of the penalty amount on one pretext or the other. However till date the office objections has not been complied and case is today posted as last chance to comply with Section 43 (5) of the Act. Hence, we are of the view that there is no good ground to grant further time and accordingly, appeal is rejected for non compliance of Section 43 (5) of the Act.
