2. What order?

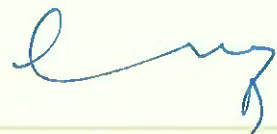

11. My answer to the above points are as under:-

1. In the Affirmative.
2. As per final order for the following.

REASONS

12. My answer to Point No.1:- On perusal of the compliant it is apparent that the compliant has sought for reliefs such as BWSSB water connection, STP connection etc., as per agreement. The complainants have appeared before this Authority and submitted documents and argued on the complaint. The respondent never appeared before this Authority even though sufficient opportunities were given.

13. As the respondent has not contested and defended his claim. The respondent utterly failed to provide amenities to the complainants even after collecting the amount from the complainant.

14. The complainants have every right to get amenities as per the agreement and the respondent is bound by the agreement to provide the amenities as per the agreement. The complainants have paid the amount to the respondent to get the amenities as per agreement. It is the duty of the respondent to provide amenities as per agreement and he cannot escape from the providing amenities.

15. Under the circumstances and as discussed above, this Authority concludes that the complainants are entitled to get all amenities as promised by the respondent as per agreement.

16. My Answer to Point No.2: In view of the above discussion, I am of the opinion that this complaint deserves to be allowed. Hence, I proceed to pass the following:
